

Elizabeth Neubauer is working toward certification as a spiritual director through the Spiritual Guidance Training Program at the Siena Retreat Center in Racine, Wisconsin. Her recovery date is October 11, 1984. With more than 30 years of daily, spiritual practice, Elizabeth has presented to a wide range of groups on spiritual growth and our journey to a deeper understanding of God. Elizabeth has used her professional talents to make a difference in other's lives including founding an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) in the business sector and raising funds to support innovative secular and religious education for children. She holds degrees in Art and Business.