

Fr. David Shields, SJ is the Founder and current Executive Director of Casa Romero Renewal Center, an urban bilingual retreat center located on Milwaukee's South Side. Fr. Shields graduated from St. Louis University with a degree in Classical Languages and spent a number of years teaching high school. He spent nearly 20 years on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota in various capacities such as teaching, counseling and administration. For seven years, he was the Director of the Red Cloud Volunteers, a program offering college graduates volunteer opportunities on the reservation. Since returning to Milwaukee, David has been active in supporting nonprofit concerns in the Latino community.