

Michael Cheney has been involved in Ignatian education since 1984. He has bachelor's and master's degrees in Spanish from St. Louis University, and a master's degree in Religious Studies from Mt. St. Mary's College in Los Angeles. He teaches sophomore Christian Morality and senior Ethics at the Jesuit High School in Sacramento. He also serves as the director of faculty development and as a spiritual director of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

Prior to joining the faculty at Jesuit High, Sacramento, he taught theology from 1984-2002 at Loyola High School in Los Angeles. He has been a guest retreat director at the Jesuit Retreat Center of Los Altos, California, and has taught theology and philosophy as adjunct instructor at Mt. St. Mary's College and Marymount College in California. He and his wife have three children.