

Fr Gene Donahue, SJ entered the Society of Jesus in 1958 after attending Marquette High School and University. He has graduate degrees from St Louis University and the University of Notre Dame. His last year of Jesuit formation was in Quebec, under the direction of Fr Gilles Cusson, SJ, an authority on the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius. He taught philosophy, theology, Christian spirituality and business ethics at Creighton University from 1971-96. He has also given many retreats in the Midwest since the early 70's, and he joined the staff at the Jesuit Retreat House in 2007 after serving in Jesuit ministries in Detroit, the Twin Cities, Milwaukee and St Francis Indian reservation in South Dakota. His current position at JRH was a dream of his since the early 1970's.
