The Jesuit Retreat House on Lake Winnebago is offering a four-day individually directed silent retreat in January 2024. During these days each retreatant is paired with a spiritual director experienced in facilitating the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola. The director will accompany you on a prayer journey to help you see God in your daily life and notice God stirring in your heart. The retreat begins with dinner Monday evening and ends with breakfast on Saturday morning.

Each day you will meet one-on-one with your spiritual director for about 45 minutes. These sessions provide direction for prayer. Expect to devote three or four hour-long periods to prayer each day. Retreatants are invited to attend daily Mass and a reconciliation service.

Directors: Fr. Rick Abert, SJ, and Sr. Sue Seeby, CSA.

Accommodations

The Jesuit Retreat House sits on 20 beautiful acres along the shore of Lake Winnebago. Retreatants stay in the Manresa wing of the retreat house which has 60 individual bedrooms, each with a private bathroom, full-size bed, towels, linens, desk and chair, sitting chair, and central air/heating. Wi-Fi is available throughout Manresa. Retreatants have access to common areas including three chapels, a lounge, library, sitting rooms with fireplaces, snack area with refrigerator, an exercise room, and an art studio. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are served buffet style in the dining room. The kitchen can accommodate most dietary needs. The Jesuit Retreat House is a smoke free environment.

Silence

Silence is maintained throughout the retreat so that retreatants have time and space to connect deeply with God. The retreat house does not have radios, televisions, or computers for retreatants to use. To help you fully immerse themselves in the retreat experience, we discourage the use of cell phones.

*The more we keep ourselves alone and secluded,
the more apt we make ourselves to approach and be united with our Creator and Lord.*
— St. Ignatius of Loyola, Spiritual Exercises #20
